

Dublin, 6 of Jan. 1860

Dear Mr May - I have a great deal to say & no time to say it in. I enclose a list for Mrs Chapman of the particulars of £30 sent by Mrs Edmondson - I mean collected by her and sent by me. Last year 2 ladies were down for £10 who sent 10/ which excited great surprise. I was down for half that I sent in Hansard & Liberator, which I regretted as I might be looked on as stung while professing adhesion to the cause & trying to help it. I did not care otherwise.

Maria Palmer (formerly Waring) & Mrs Harvey my wife's sister, both with ps. portraits of Mrs Brown. If the one in Redpath's book be good it will be the cheapest. If the other photographs be approved it will be better in helping the Browns.

Mary Threlkeld has bid the Standard fair without having ordered it. She does not know by what direction. She has sent me word to pay for it for her in future.
Please also send it to James H. Webb, Upper Bury Street, Dublin - his subscription for one of the £2 I told you he lends for the Festival. You will receive a packet of Brown for me - so as it is considered a good one, I am indifferent to the quantity. Perhaps you can have it verified for me - when you remember me to Mrs Chapman whom I hoped to write to, but really have not time.

Yours ever affectionately,

Rich Webb

Mrs. Harveys Standard has been stopped; please continue it; & I will pay.

Mr. Wilson is here still. He has got a good medical help as you Dublin - he is I think working on his arm. I send a circular I have collected at the desire of some friends. You see I commit myself only to what I know & say as I know nothing but from him. Still all I see of him confirms my opinion of his honesty & uprightness & that he is no sham. He has got some money & a great deal of kindness since he arrived in Dublin.
He has no paper for me & seems very desirous to be useful. He does not "swagger" or "swale" in the least which I think a knave would do. Still I wd be glad to know all you can find out for me respecting him. I am but in wonder at the mean sneaking way that so many of the better people go on in this affair - in view of the outspoken impudence & wickedness of the Slave States.
